An aperient and Stomachie preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carhon by combustion of Hydrogen. Sauctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their preside.

The Theorem of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sichly complexions indicate it: necessity in almost every conceivable case. Hunxolons in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, vir.

In cases of General Debility, wholher the result of acute disease or of the confined diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalide solong bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, there suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protrasted travel in a distant land.—Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victures of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that compilication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Fills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Coaticneces.

In unchecked Diarrhæn, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emacining, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing. In the local pains, loss officels and stempth, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Interpient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrottlous Tuberculous, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautionally balanced preparations of iodnie, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of formaies cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting thron. In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Hannibal Hamlin. OF NAME

Porsonal Appearance Character of Mr. Lincoln Ten thousand inquries will be made as to the looks, the habita, tastes, and other characteristics of Honest Old Abe. We anticipate a few of them.

Mr. Lincoln stands six feet four inches high in his stockings. His frame is not muscular, but gaunt and wiry; his arms are long, but not unreasonably so for a person of his height; his lower limbs are not disproportioned to his body. In walking his gait though firm is never brisk. Heateps slowly and deliberately, almost always with his besd inclined forward and his hands clasped behind his back. In menters of dress, he is by no means precise. Alwaya clean, he is never fashionable; he is careless, but not slovenly. In manner he is remarkably cordial, and, at the same time, simple. His politeness is niways sincere, but never elaborate and oppressive.

A. Mr. Hubbard, of Glocester, nominated W. R. Watson for State Auditor, and he smile of recognition, are his methods of was elected. greeting his friends. At rest, his features, when his fine dark grey eyes are lighted up by any emotion, and his features begin their play, he would be chosen from among a crowd as one who had in him not only the kindly sentiments which women love, but the heavier metal of which full-grown men, and Presidents are made. His hair is black, and, though thin, is wiry. His head sits well on his shouldera but beyond that, it defies description. It nearer resembles that of Clay than Webster; but it is unlike cither. It is very large, and, phrenologically, well proportioned, betokening power in all its developements. A slightly Roman nose, a wide cut mouth, and a dark complexion, with the appearance of having been wentherbeaten, complete the description-

In his personal habits, Mr. Lincoln is as simple as a child. He loves a good dinner, and eats with the appetite which goes with a great brain; but his food is plain and tritique. He never drinks intoxicating wine. He is not addicted to tobacco in any of its shapes. He never was accused of a licentious act in all his life. He never uses profane language. He never gambles; Parkburst. we doubt if he ever indulged in any game of chance. He is particularly cautious about incurring pecuniary obligations for about incurring pecuniary obligations for Providence—Edwin Metcalf, William Sanauy purpose whatever; and, in debt, he is ford, Francis Colwell.

He would bu a bold man who would say that Abra-Henry N. Ward, ham Lincoln ever wronged any one out of Thomas Weaver, a cent, or ever spent a dollar that he had not honestly earned. His struggles in early life have made him careful of money, out his generosity with his own is proverbial. He is a regular attendant upon reli-gious worship, and though not a communi-Oliver H. At home. he lives like a gentleman of modest means and simple tastes. A good-sized house of wood, simply but tastefully furnished, surrounded by trees and flowers, is his own, and there he lives, at peace with himself, the idol of his family, and for his honesty, ability, and patriotism, the admiration of his countrymen.

A cart-horse backed over a precipice, at Ottawa, Ill.; last week, falling about 150 feet perpendicular. The harness and cart were used up but the horse was unhurt.

On Tuesday of last week, a little son of A. K. Martin, of Dubuque, Iowa, fell into a well 80 feet deep, and was drowned. The mother went cut to the well for water, her two children following her, and on returning into the house, heard a splash, and the younger child cry "Frankie's in the well!" She ran out, but he had sunk to rise no more alive.

It is stated that the Government has received information that the fishermen off the coast of Florida and South Carolina, are in the habit of running over on the pretence of disposing of their fish, and returning with two or three native Al-ther and passible there at a law door, or him who meet them on the coast, purchase the negroes and take them into the interi-or. This gross and notorious violation of law has been going on for some time, and it remains to be seen whether any steps will be taken to prevent it.

The cattle disease now raging in Eastern Massachusetts, prevailed in England from 1744 to 1755. In Nottinghamshire, 40,-000 head of cattle died in six months; 600 head of cattle died in six months; in Cheshiro 30,000. During the third year of the disease, £135,000 were paid out of the public treasury, as a recompense for staughtered cattle. In 1857, in forty-three villages in If-lland, 14,000 head of cattle died or were killed.

The malady is now maily confined to the East, but it was easily he have to the East, bet it may easily be corne to other sections, by the contact or removal of cattle. The Homestead, a Connecticut Agricultural paper, has the following suggestions:

First-The Connecticut River Bank

should by decree of the Commissioners in Massachusetts, and by others appointed in Connecticut and Vermont, be made a boundary, over which no neat animal shall pass Westward from this day till the plague is stayed, on penalty of a heavy tine, and the immediate slaughter of the animal. Thus, at no small sacrifice, will the copie cast of the river have the satis-section of knowing that in all probability the broad Connecticut will be the limit over which the disease will not pass.

Second—As regards our own State and

New Hampshire, the cordon of towns joinward, should be, for the present, under ble "mertial law"—it should be forbidden on heavy penalty to allow any near stock to pass the town lines outward, in any direcion, except within the bounds of the farm of their owners, which may happen to lie upon the line. The authorities of the ad-joining towns should be directed to slaughter animals thus straying or driven from this line of towns, and at their option, bury them, or allow the owners to take home

Mothers!

Mhousands are daily speaking in the praise

DR. KATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL and why? because it never fails to afford in-stantaneous relief when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true.

of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening its sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for Cilidtern Teething, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Griplug in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Winds, Cold in the Head and Croup, also, for softening the guns, reducing the inflamation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodio it is used with unfailing success in all eases of Convulsion or other Fits. As you what the tife and health of your children, and with the subject of the confidence of which all other remedies for Infantile Complaints are compared, take none but Dr. Enton's Infantile Coradin, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant. Price 25 cents. Full directions ascempany each bottle. Prepared only by CHURCH & DUPONT, No. 409 Broadway, New York. ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL,

Broadway, New York.

WHEN COMPLETED, six years ago, the St. Nicholas was universally pronumed the most magnificent, convenient, and thoroughly organized establishment of the kind on this continent; What it was then it remains to-day—without a rival in size, in sumptuonanese, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment. The Hotel has accummodations for 1;000 guests, including 100 complete suites of apartments for families. Six hundred persons can be comfortably cated at the tables of its three public dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the traveling public has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its practical details. The carly reputation of the house at home and abroad, derived from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and its home-like comforts and luxuries, has been evaluanced every year by the unwarded exertions of the proprietors.

CITY COAL YARD.

YHENS VALLEY FRANKLIN
COAL.
The subscribers take this method of returning thanks to their many patrons for their means of their lynking Valley Franklin Coal.
The mines from which this Coal is taken were never in so promising a condition as at present, and such improvements have been made for preparing and screening it as warrant us in asying that we believe the Coal will be shipped in better order than ever before.
The superior quality of the Franklin Coal having become fully established, the demend has rapidly increased, and an evidence of its great popularity is the fact that several deslers have adopted its name in full or in part, thereby hoping to introduce other kinds of inferior Coal by which the public have often been descived.

Waiting your favora, we are Respectfully Yours,
